Ultime Session: 2 days of partying to bid farewell to winter!

The Ultime Session is a party to celebrate the end of the winter season. All snow sports fans, party animals and music lovers are invited to join the fun at Verbier's Snowpark. For the first time, celebrations will extend across the weekend, on 19 and 20 April 2025.

A retro edition for Téléverbier's 75th anniversary

To celebrate 75 years of Téléverbier, this year's edition is going retro, inspired by the 1950s. This trip back in time invites participants to dive into the vintage glamour of this decade. As part of the celebrations, we have a special offer for you on Saturday, 19 April: a free ski pass for under 25s for the Verbier sector.

A programme bursting with entertainment and music

The celebrations kick off on Saturday, 19 April at 11am with the opening of the waterslide, the day's main event. This year, the waterslide will be bigger and better with a snow tubing downhill run for even more fun. The day will be set to the music of violinist Laura Zimmermann, famous for her performances blending popular hits with an electro twist. She will be accompanied by her DJ, Lyam Cruz.

At 1pm, the boldest participants can show off their creativity in the waterslide tricks competition and the fancy dress contest. Prizes will be awarded at 3pm. The party continues from 4pm at Bar 1936 with a performance from the band Kudos.

Two days of partying

On Sunday, 20 April, activities start again from 11am with another waterslide session, a snow tubing downhill run on inflatables and music courtesy of DJ Dr Fad'R. The event comes to a close at the end of the day with a final set from Laura Zimmermann and Lyam Cruz at Bar 1936 from 4pm to 7pm.
